

Robert Parker's
Wine Advocate

Cabernet Sauvignon 88 Points!

From relatively high elevation mountain vineyards, the 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon possesses floral, blueberry and black currant aromas intermixed with hints of graphite and spice box. Medium-bodied with sweet tannin and a surprisingly civilized, polite style for a high elevation Cabernet, it is a mid-weight, Bordeaux-like red that should drink nicely for 7 – 8 years.

- Robert Parker
February 2011

FERRARI-CARANO
Vineyards and Winery

ferrari-carano.com