

91 Points

From its nicely composed aromas of caramel, cream, currants and mint to its very deep and plentifully oaked fruit flavors, this generous, fairly muscular wine stays in control in spite of its clear bias to ripeness. Its evident, but appropriate tannins provide plenty of spine for aging, but its ample measure of well-rendered fruit stays the course and guarantees five to eight years of steady improvement.

— CGCW